

Elsinore Harbour – the Jewel in the Crown

A remarkable port of call for all

HELSINGØR – DENMARK

Give passengers an extraordinary experience!

There are few harbours in the world that can boast a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Elsinore Harbour neighborhood, which re-opens in 2012 after extensive renovation, is certainly one of them. From the quays, visitors can enjoy the many harbour attractions and explore the historical city of Elsinore, with its mediaeval buildings, cathedral, cloisters and extensive pedestrian shopping and restaurant facilities. With services and facilities to handle even the largest groups, Elsinore Harbour provides cruise ships and their guests the best kick-off for a visit to Denmark.

Wake up to Elsinore Castle

Proudly guarding the entrance to the harbour is one of Northern Europe's best renaissance castles.

Kronborg, which is known to the English-speaking world as Elsinore Castle, is home to Shakespeare's timeless Hamlet and serenely commands the entrance to the harbour.

Set in impressive and extensive grounds, moats and ramparts that are easily accessible from landing stages, the visitor-friendly castle provides a fascinating insight into Denmark's military, maritime and royal history.

Culture Yard and Maritime Museum

Modernised quays provide access to the striking architectural novelty of the Culture Yard – an eldorado of facilities tastefully built into the converted buildings of the former shipyard and bordered by the Danish Maritime Museum, itself exquisitely built into a dry dock.

With its vast collections of artifacts and innovative exhibitions, the museum provides an impressive interactive insight into the maritime world for visitors of all ages.
